

Join us for World Down Syndrome Day 21 March 2014

21 March 2014 marks the 9th anniversary of World Down Syndrome Day (WDSO) and each year the voice of people with Down syndrome, and those who live and work with them, grows louder. But there is still so much more we can do.

Down Syndrome International (DSi) encourages our friends all over the world to choose your own activities and events to help raise awareness of what Down syndrome is, what it means to have Down syndrome, and how people with Down syndrome play a vital role in our lives and communities.

Here are some ways you can join us on 21 March 2014:

- Organise your activities based on DSi's focus area for 2014 which is "Health and Wellbeing - Access and Equality for All".
- Share your WDSO World Events on our dedicated WDSO website in a single global meeting place.
- Watch our WDSO Global Video Event, produced each year with the participation of organisations in many countries around the world.
- Attend our WDSO Conference at the United Nations in New York either in person or online, live or on-demand, at UN Web TV.
- Wear LOTS OF SOCKS to get people talking about WDSO on 21 March.
- Nominate someone for the WDSO Awards which any member of DSi can do.
- Like, join, attend, share, mention, tweet, re-tweet, view or subscribe on our various WDSO Social Media channels.
- Promote our WDSO Patrons Messages.

Whatever you plan to do, let's create a single global voice for advocating for the rights, inclusion and well-being of people with Down syndrome on 21 March.
